Application for residence and work permit under the Greencard scheme

0. Information about fees

From 1 January 2011 onwards, you will normally need to pay a fee if you submit an application for a residence permit, for an extension of a residence permit, or for a permanent residence permit in Denmark. The size of the fee depends on which type of application you submit. You can find the current fees on www.newtodenmark.dk/fee.

All persons who submit an application for residence and work permit under the Greencard scheme must do the following in the order below:

1. Create a case order ID. Please note: You must state the case order ID in the field below.
2. Pay the fee. Please note: Certain groups of applicants may be exempt from paying the fee. These groups must still create a case order ID.
3. Submit the application.

The fee covers the processing of your case. This means that the fee will not be refunded if your application is turned down. Furthermore, the fee will not be refunded if, during the processing of your case, you choose to withdraw your application. If you have not paid the fee your application will be rejected, which means that it will not be processed. If your application is rejected for any other reason, the fee will be refunded minus an administration fee.

How do I create a case order ID?

Anyone can create a case order ID on www.newtodenmark.dk/fee. You must clearly state the case order ID in the field below and when paying the fee (if applicable).

How do I pay the fee?

You can pay the fee in several ways, such as from a Danish internet bank, in the bank or at the post office. On www.newtodenmark.dk/fee you can choose how you wish to pay, and you can see which information is required when paying the fee. Please note: The fee must be paid no later than at the same time the application is submitted. In most cases, this means that the fee will need to be paid before the application is submitted. Only a few Danish diplomatic missions will allow you to pay the fee when you submit your application. You cannot pay the fee directly to the Service Centre of the Immigration Service or to the Danish police. Please include documentation that you have paid the fee, such as a receipt from a Danish internet bank or a receipt from a bank or post office.

As a Turkish citizen, you may be exempt from paying the fee

If you (the applicant) are a Turkish citizen and are applying for a residence and work permit under the Greencard scheme, you may be exempt from paying the fee. On www.newtodenmark.dk/fee you can read more about who is exempt from paying the fee. If you are a Turkish citizen and believe that you are exempt from paying the fee, please tick the box next to "Applicant is exempt from paying the fee". If you do this you do not need to fill in the information required for refunding the fee. When you create a case order ID, please state that you are exempt from paying the fee. Please note: if the immigration authorities decide that you are in fact not exempt from paying the fee, your application will be rejected, which means that it will not be processed. However, if you have paid the fee and the immigration authorities decide that you are in fact exempt from paying the fee, the fee will be refunded.

0.1 Case order ID

Please state your case order ID. The case order ID you state below must be identical to the case order ID stated when paying the fee. Please include documentation that you have paid the fee. If you believe that you are exempt from paying the fee, please enter your case order ID and tick the box next to 'The applicant is exempt from paying the fee'.

Please give the information required for refunding the fee. The fee can be refunded by transfer to a Danish NEM account ('NEM-konto'), a Danish bank account, a foreign bank account, or in cash at a Danish diplomatic mission. Diplomatic missions can only repay fees in cash if the fee was originally paid there. Please state the name of the person to whom the refund should be paid (account holder/recipient), how you wish to receive the money, and any required information.

If the refund is to be paid to a foreign bank account, we recommend that you speak with your bank first to obtain the information necessary in order to receive a transfer from Denmark. In addition to the account information, you may also need to provide the bank's address.

- My residence permit can be revoked.

B. Declaration of consent to allow authorities to gather necessary information

Such information includes:

- Previous criminal proceedings against me.
- My familial relations.
- Verification that the documents submitted with my application are genuine.

I also consent to giving authorities contacted by the Danish Immigration Service while processing my application permission to gather information about my private affairs for use in responding to the Immigration Service's enquiry.

C. Notification that information can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authority

The information and documents that you submit with your application can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and the Danish public prosecuting authority (Aliens Act section 45 a and section 45 c). This process can be initiated by Danish immigration authorities, Danish intelligence agencies or the Danish public prosecutor.

The prosecuting authority will be able to use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark or abroad, to identify victims of or witnesses to a specific crime, or to aid foreign law enforcement agencies.

D. The immigration authorities will share your information to the Danish Ministry of Science, Technology, and Innovation

As part of the application review process, your information will be passed on to CIRIUS, an agency under the Ministry of Education responsible for evaluating your educational level and determining its Danish equivalent.

E. Notification that some information will be passed on to local Danish authorities

The municipality will be informed if:

- Your residence permit is revoked or not extended.
- Your residence permit is found to have expired.

F. Notification that Danish authorities have registered information about you and your affairs

The information you supply or have supplied in connection with your application for a residence and work permit will be registered in the Danish Immigration Service's registers. The same holds true for any information you give in conjunction with an application to extend your residence permit.

If you receive a residence permit, it will be registered in the Central Person Register. The Central Person Register is a computerised register maintained by the Danish Ministry of Social Affairs.

The information in the Danish Immigration Service's registers and the Central Person Register will be used to answer questions relating to your residence in Denmark. Public administration authorities (record keeping), the police (record keeping and verification) and the Ministry of Integration (reviewing complaints) will have access to the information about you contained in the Danish Immigration Service's registers and the Central Person Register.

Other authorities or organisations will receive information about you from the Danish Immigration Service's registers and the Central Person Register if they require the information to address questions relating to your residence in Denmark.

You are obligated to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a Danish residence permit. Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to four months of imprisonment, as well as placing your residence permit in jeopardy. You are entitled to access information about yourself in the Danish Immigration Service's registers and the Central Person Register. Enquiries about this can be addressed to the Danish Immigration Service, Ryesgade 53, DK-2100 Copenhagen Ø.

G. Information regarding possible verification by the authorities of the information you have supplied

The Integration Service may seek to verify the accuracy of the information you have given in this application. This may happen while the application is being processed or later, if you are granted a permit. If you are granted a permit and the Immigration Service finds that you no longer meet the requirements of your residence permit, your permit may be revoked. Verification may be conducted at random and is not necessarily an indication that the Immigration Service suspects you of providing false information, or of not meeting the requirements of your residence permit.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Central Person Register
- Comparison of information contained in the Aliens Register or other Immigration Service registries with records held by the Central Office of Civil Registration (CPR Office), the Buildings and Housing Registry (BBR) or the income registry
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities
- Contacting third parties, such as employers or places of study
- Turning up in person at your residence, place of study or workplace

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification process.

H. Information about possible consequences if you apply for a residence permit while in Denmark on a visa (short term)

If you are staying in Denmark on a visa (short term) and you submit an application for a residence permit in this country, you need to be aware that it may have the following consequences:

- You can become ineligible for a visa for five-years (Aliens Act section 4 c).
- If someone in Denmark has posted a financial guarantee for your visa, it can be collected by the Immigration Service, which means the money will be forfeited to the state (Aliens Act section 4).

However, the abovementioned consequences do not apply in the following cases:

- If you are a child under 15 or a spouse applying for family reunification.
- If you apply for a residence permit in order to study.
- If you apply for a residence permit in order to participate in the cities of refuge program.

- If you apply for a residence permit on the grounds of work, and you meet the requirements to obtain a permit.
- If there are decisive humanitarian reasons for allowing you to remain eligible for a visa or the guarantee not to be forfeited.

These exceptions assume the reason for your application is genuine.
